

Frederick W. Lauster Jr.

By Ashley Swaim, his daughter

My father was a very stubborn man and couldn't even think of having one thing out of place. But when you are diagnosed with Stage IV cancer that spread all over by the end of it, you tend to give in a little. On behalf of myself and my family, I would like to say THANK YOU to everyone at hospice who made my father's final days so comfortable and peaceful. Walking into the doors it was like angels were all around, and it was the best feeling in the world. You all have no idea the impact you have had on me and my family. We couldn't thank you enough. And Ms. Jackie, I don't know where you learned that song about angels but I would love it if you could teach it to me. It was beautiful and I know dad loved it too. Thank you again. You all are a wonderful, loving, caring, and amazing group of people, and I'm so glad you were all there to make things easier on all of us. We love you all.
